

Grant Writing 101 Webinar

Presenter: Stephanie Gerding

LibraryLinkNJ, The New Jersey Library Cooperative

March 21, 2011

Joanne Roukens: Look at the chat box as substitute for in-person networking, conversation and questions for the presenter.

fran houston: Funds cut and need to find ways to fund teen programming

Precious Mack: Find funding for special projects funding

Bucci, Kathleen: Funding Cut Need funds for Programming.

fran houston: Already got this office!

Carol Samples: I haven't written very many grants and would like to know the effective ways of writing one as well as finding grants for school libraries for technology purchasing

Lee Beam: Robert Kiyosaki has a teen grant for programs.

Steven Shapiro 2: look for supplemental funds to pick up resources

Laura Beth Davis: This is a Req. for for one of my MLIs course

Lanora Melillo: I wrote a fake one for my MLIS course

Anne Walsh: Finding funds for technology

Susanna Chan: yes

Melissa Okerblom: yes

Precious Mack: no

Laura Beth Davis: YEs

Bucci, Kathleen: We have a plan.

Carol Samples: no

Susan Permahos: We have a plan but this is the year that it must be updated again.

Kate Baker: It's being developed now.

Claudine Krystyniak: not sure

Anne Walsh: no

Barbara Laub: Yes, we have a strategic plan.

fran houston: No

Jeanne Wachter: not yet

Lee Beam: unsure

Steven Shapiro 2: yes

Susan Lazzari: specific measurable goal

Carol Samples: those in which a large no of community members benefit from the grant

Lee Beam: One that helps the most persons for the $$ spent.

Susan Permahos: something that the public wants

Laura Beth Davis: Good project = it solves a need

Kate Baker: Something that the community can't get somewhere else, or for free.

Jeanne Wachter: One that community members want

Anne Walsh: a project that is sustainable

Susanna Chan: projects for special populations

fran houston: also, something that gets more folks into the library and aware of ALL the resources

Laura Beth Davis: Yup, that's my library system :)

Laura Beth Davis: No, I was not involved.

Anne Walsh: I am also from Ocean County

Kate Baker: American Dream Starts @ Your Library. An ALA/Dollar General store grant.

Susan Permahos:A number of ADA grants to automate doors, widen emergency exits, install strobes & lights in rest rooms. Also Target gave us a grant to pay for a sign language interpreter for a deaf mom who wanted to attend story time with her toddler.

Melissa Okerblom:We received a grant from Target for a monthly early literacy program

Jeanne Wachter:Our Friends received a grant from Target for an art program for teens.

Jessica Adler:Yes I'll tell you about that at the end!

Susan Permahos:NJ Council for the Humanities, county Cultural & Heritage Affairs offices, Community Development Block grants...

Laura Butler:We had a grant from (ALTAFF) Association of Library Trustees, Advocates, Friends and Foundations a few years ago.

Jessica Adler:Any questions for Stephanie? Please type them here!

fran houston:Thanks!

Claudine Krystyniak:Thank you!

Anne Walsh:Thank you

Jeanne Wachter:Thanks

Deb Goetjen:Thanks Stephanie - this was great!

Lee Beam:Thank you!

Barbara Laub:Thank you!

Laura Beth Davis:Thank you, I am going to check out that icecream grant, it looks promising!

Susan Van Alstyne:thank you.

Stephanie Gerding:Thanks everyone!

Susanna Chan:Thank you, Stephanie!

Stephanie Gerding:Good luck with grants!

Bucci, Kathleen:Thank You

Nicole Cooke:thank you Stephanie!

Precious Mack:Thank you, Stephanie. That was great!

Steven Shapiro:thank you

karen O'Malley:Thank you

Lanora Melillo:thanks, have a great week!

carol samples:thank you

Jessica Adler:You're welcome, everyone!

Lee Beam:The web link has appeared, but will not open for me. Sorry I can not answer or review the course.

Jessica Adler:<https://infolink.wufoo.com/forms/grant-writing-101/>

Jessica Adler:Lee, can you click on that?

Jessica Adler:You'll also get the link in an email tomorrow